Gujarati language Learning Classes for Children

After our last circular, we have had requests from some parents who would like their children to learn Gujarati.

We are hopeful that we shall get enough students to start at least one class, and luckily we have an experienced teacher.

The classes shall be held at Beauchamp College W/C 10 Jan 2012 on Tuesdays during term time from 3:30pm to 5:30pm at a cost of apox £25 per term.

Please email us if you are interested, giving name and age of child and a tel contact number.

Spaces will be allocated on first come first serve basis.

Tabla Classes

For the time being we have 4 people interested in learning to play tabla. If we can get a few more then we can start these classes too in Oadby. Please email us if you are keen to learn to play tabla.

These are likely to be on Tuesdays from 11 Jan 2012, from 7pm to 8pm at Beauchamp College, at a cost of apox £10 per session. Rishi Chowdhury, who lives in Oadby, is willing to teach tabla. You may view him via the link below and is also on Facebook.
