Newsletter August 2010

The Oadby & Wigston Hindu Community (OWHC) is a 15 month old community organisation focused on providing facilities and services to meet and further the spiritual, religious, social, educational, cultural and welfare needs of the large Hindu community of all ages living in and around Oadby & Wigston.

What we achieved in one year.

Yoga Sessions

We have been successively running Yoga sessions at Parklands Leisure Centre, Oadby on Wednesdays from 7.00 pm to 8.30, and it is now oversubscribed.

Inaugural Musical Evening

An Inaugural Evening was held on Saturday 10th October 2009 at Beauchamp College, with well known Sajjanben Oderdra and Group which performed various Bhajans and devotional songs. The Evening was attended by a large audience. View our website for further details and videos.

OWHC Constitution and First Annual General Meeting

After a number of discussions held at various meetings, we now have in place a constitution for the OWHC to work from; this was approved at the first AGM held at Beauchamp College, on Sunday 18th April 2010. A large number of members attended this meeting and the details about various events and activities which took place were given, as well as financial matters. A new committee was elected and appointed to continue with the good work and effort from the previous members.

OWHC constitution is available on our website for further reference.

Joint Events with other Organisations

East Midland In Bloom competition

We were one of the faiths representing Oadby and Wigston Borough Council in this competition. The scene at Oadby Parade was a colourful display of flowers, garland and a multi-faith community joined together in proud splendour of Oadby. Once again our Hindu community was represented in the event this year.

One Family week - Sunday 18th October 2009 at Beauchamp College.

In association with Surya Shakra of Oadby we joined in to put together an exhibition on Hinduism. The theme was Vasudhaiva kutumbakam meaning "The whole world is one Family" There were displays, books and musical PowerPoint presentations on Hinduism, and a short but delightful play "Creation and Environment" presented by children. There were positive comments made by the all and the group was asked by many to perform the play in different schools in and around Oadby.

Diwali Programme

We also joined in to a celebrate Diwali programme organised and hosted by Oadby and Wigston Multicultural Group at Oadby Trinity Methodist Church, Harborough Road, Oadby on Wednesday 14th October 2009.

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.
